D G C A
Tell me when you're getting bored and I'll leave

D G C A
I'm not the one who put the chain around your feet

D G C A D G C A
I'm sorry for all of my insecurities, but it's just a part of me

D G C A
"Envy is thin because it bites but never eats"

D G C A
That's what a nice old Spanish lady once told me

D G C A D G D
"Hey Debbie-Downer turn that frown upside down and just be happy"

F#m G
I don't ask too much of you

F#m G
It's true and I can't read your mind

D C G A D C G A
Don't stop listening, I'm not finished yet

D C G A D C G A
I'm not fishing for your compliments

D G C A
I'm growing older every time I blink my eyes

D G C A
Boring, neurotic, everything that I despise

D G C A D G C A
We had some lows, we had some mids, we had some highs

D G C A
Sell me all your golden rules and I'll see

D G C A
If that's the kind of person that I wanna be

D G C A D G D
If I'm not happy I'll be glad I kept receipts

F#m G

I won't ask too much of you

F#m G

I used to wonder what to wear

D C G A D C G A

Don't stop listening, I'm not finished yet

D C G A D C G A

I'm not fishing for your compliments

Don't stop listening, I'm not finished yet

I'm not fishing for your compliments

Don't stop listening, I'm not finished yet

I'm not fishing for your compliments

Don't stop listening, I'm not finished yet

I'm not fishing for your compliments
