recorded by the Soggy Bottom Boys

Key of D

D                    A                    D
In constant sorrow all through his days

D                    D7                    G
I am the man of constant sorrow
                         A7                    D
I've seen trouble on my days
                         D7                    G
I bid farewell to old Kentucky
                         A7                    D
The place where I was born and raised
                         A7                    D
(The place where he was born and raised)

                         D7                    G
For six long years I've been in trouble
                         A7                    D
No pleasure here on earth I find
                         D7                    G
For in this world I'm bound to ramble
                         A7                    D                    A7                    D
I have no friends to help me now (He has no friends to help him now)

                         D7                    G
Hey it's fair thee well my old true lover
                         A7                    D
I never expect to see you again
                         D7                    G
For I'm bound to ride that northern railroad
                         A7                    D                    A7                    D
Perhaps I'll die upon this train. (Perhaps he'll die upon this train)

                         D7                    G
You can bury me in some deep valley
                         A7                    D
For many years where I'll be laid
                         D7                    G
And you may learn to love another
                         A7                    D                    A7                    D
While I am sleeping in my grave (While he is sleeping in his grave)

                         D7                    G
Maybe your friends think I'm just a stranger
                         A7                    D
My face you'll never see no more
                         D7                    G
But there is one promise that is given
                         A7                    D                    A7                    D
I'll meet you on God's golden shore (He'll meet you on God's golden shore)
